them. But this thing must have a turning point, for if we continue to lose territory and the people continue to fly before the enemy it is not difficult to foresee the end.

M. S. Robbins, Esq., of Raleigh, who was recently appointed private Secretary to the Governor, has been elected Treasurer of the Literary Fund in place of [illegible], Jr., Esq., resigned.

The following N. C. Soldiers were buried in the cemetery at City Point during the month of August: Lewis Lemon, 56th, Corp C Whitehurst, C, 56th, Benj Hughes, 56th, Corp J N Gilreath, F, 37th, Thos Corpler, K, 51st.

Col Geo B Myers, 24th Miss Regt, a native of Anson county, in this State, was killed at Atlanta on the 22d. He was a brother of W R Myers of Charlotte.

We learn from the Charlotte Democrat that the 2d Regiment Senior Reserves, which has been encamped near Greensboro' for two weeks, was disbanded last Friday till further orders, and the men have returned to their homes. The Regiment was commanded by Col John F Hoke, formerly Adjutant General of the State.

Persons having Irish potatoes, onions, sour krout, &c., to sell will confer a great favor on our soldiers in the trenches at Petersburg by furnishing them to Maj T D Hogg, Raleigh; Major J Sloan, Greensboro'; John L. Brown, Charlotte; J D Brown, Salisbury; A C Murdock, Hillsboro'; J A Boyden, Wadesboro', or G H White, Statesville.

Gen. J. G. Martin gives notice that on Monday the 4th of October, a train of wagons will leave Morganton the Virginia Salt Works with a guard sufficiently large to ensure them protection. Persons living in counties west of Burke, who may desire to send, will start their wagons in time to reach Morganton on the day above mentioned. Others can join the train at Lenoir or Patterson on Tuesday the 5th of October. Trains will leave Morganton also on Monday the 11th of October, and on Monday the 18th of October, reaching Lenoir or Patterson respectively the 12th and 19th of October. Persons desiring to send, need entertain no fear that their teams will be impressed by the authorities of the Confederate States, and the officer commanding the "Department of Western Virginia" will be requested to protect them.

Gen R C Gatlin, Adjutant General, has given the following explanation of a recent order from his office:

Ministers of the Gospel of the several denominations in the State, charged with the duties of such ministry, are exempted by law from enrollment in the Guard for Home Defence. They cannot be required to perform duty in that organization.

eleven guns, to which she in the same manner replied. And there she still lays, and probably will continue to stay, unless some dark night is the closing act of her career; for it hardly seems possible that she will be permitted to go as she came; which, by the way, was rather mysterious. As she must have passed around by the western bar, and in any event encountered, passing by several blockaders, and as the night was bright and starlight, this adds to the mystery. Admiral Lee designs taking all the possible precaution, and will to-morrow leave this port to visit the blockade off Wilmington.

It would seem as if still another was to be added to the rebel cruisers. A few nights ago, a large, fast steamer, carrying at her stern the English ensign, at her foremast the rebel colors, entered the port of Wilmington. Fort Caswell and the battery fired a feu de joie. She is supposed to be a new rebel cruiser, or to have had on board some distinguished, welcome passenger.—She, likewise, still remains there.

The Tallahassee had but one mast standing when engaged by the Monticello.

GENERAL SHERMAN ON RECRUITING NEGROES IN THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

Sherman seems to have little confidence in the negro troops. He has written the following letter to the Massachusetts agent for recruiting that sneaking State's quota out of negroes within the Confederate States:

HEAD'QRS MILITARY DIVISION OF THE MISSISSIPPI, IN THE FIELD, NEAR ATLANTA, GA., July 30, 1864.

John A. Spooner, Esq., Agent for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Nashville, Tennessee:

Sir: Yours from Chattanooga, July 28, is received, notifying me of your appointment by your State as Lieutenant-Colonel and Provost Marshal of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, under the act of congress, approved July 4, 1864 to recruit volunteers to be credited to the States respectively.

On applying to General Webster, at Nashville, he will grant you a pass through our lines to those States, and, as I have had considerable experience in those States, would suggest recruiting depots to be established at Macon and Columbus, Mississippi; Selma, Montgomery and Mobile, Alabama; and Columbus, Milledgeville and Savannah, Georgia.

I do not see that the law restricts you to black recruits, but you are at liberty to collect white recruits also. It is waste of time and money to open rendezvous in Northwest Georgia, for I assure you I have not seen an able-bodied man, black or white, there fit for a soldier, who was not in this army or the one opposed to it.

You speak of the impression going abroad that I am opposed to the organization of colored regiments.

[illegible]

I would not draw on the poor race [illegible]

[illegible]

I [illegible] you may show this to the agents of the other States [illegible]. I am, &c.

FRENCH BROAD LANDS FOR SALE.

GLEN CANNON FARM, TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS FARM LIES ON THE FRENCH BROAD RIVer, within five miles of Brevard, the county town, and is universally known as the best tract of land, and the most productive property in the county, and probably in Western North Carolina. In salubrity of climate, beauty of scenery, location and fertility of soil, it is unsurpassed by any property in the State. It consists of 1,370 acres of land, 400 of which are first quality French Broad bottom, all of which, with the exception of 40 or 50 acres, are cleared and under a high state of cultivation, thoroughly drained and enclosed in fences, most of which are now lath hanging on locust posts. 1,500 bushels of corn were gathered from 30 acres of this land with ordinary cultivation and without any fertilizer ever having been applied to it. Ninety acres are laid down in the most approved mode, to the grasses and afford heavy crops of hay and excellent pasturage. The balance of the tract, say 970 acres, is the heaviest and best timbered mountain land.

The whole tract is under one boundary and may be subdivided advantageously, there being four very eligible and beautiful building sites, with bottom land attached.

On the premises is a good cottage residence, of five rooms, each with a fire place, kitchen, servant houses, ice house, dairy, smokehouse, framed corncrib, capacity 3,000 bushels ear corn, one double and five single negro houses, two stables, outhouses, an excellent saw and grist mill, all built within thirteen years by the proprietor. The saw mill is driven by an overshot wheel of 18 feet in diameter, and is located at one of the most beautiful water falls of about 100 feet in height and equal to 150 horse power, and only fifteen minutes walk from the residence.

This property for this year is under rent to General Smith, of East Tennessee, who will give any information desired during the absence of the proprietor.

The price of these lands is (160,000) one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. Payment may be made in Confederate notes at the market value at Columbia, S. C., at time of sale.

With the above property can be purchased twelve remarkably prime and orderly negroes, being a picked gang accustomed to the culture of the farm in the most careful and cleanly style. Among them are four men, three women and five children. The men are excellent plowmen, mowers, cradlers, &c., one is a good carpenter. Of the women, one is an excellent cook and spinner. The children are from one to six years of age. Also the farm tools consisting in part of plows, harrows, horse rake, field roller, corn planters, sorgho mills, molasses boilers, corn sheller, straw cutters, timber carts, &c. Also the stock of highly improved cattle.

Address McK. JOHNSTONE,
Spartanburg, S.C.

N. B.—I think I can take the liberty with Judge R. M. Saunders and the Right Rev. Bishop Atkinson, of offering them as references in regard to the value, &c., of my farm.

My cattle consist of 15 head, and my sheep of about 80 head.

I have a considerable lot of lumber and 30,000 shingles on hand.

I will take $200,000 for the land, negroes, stock, farming tools, lumber, &c., or will sell separately.

Grant and Sheridan both being absent, we need not expect anything beyond the usual skirmishing and shelling at Petersburg for some days to come.

There are a number of North Carolina regiments in Early's command, and our people will no doubt be again called on to mourn a long list of killed and wounded, (for our boys are always in the hottest of the fight) but we most devoutly trust that when the particulars do reach us we shall be permitted again to rejoice over the success of our arms.

Special Field Orders,
No. 67.

I. The city of Atlanta being exclusively required for warlike purposes, will at once be vacated by all except the armies of the United States and such civilian employees as may be retained by the proper departments of the Government.

II. The Chief Quartermaster, Col. Easton, will at once take possession of buildings of all kinds and of all staple articles, such as cotton, tobacco, &c., and will make such dispositions of them as are required by existing regulations, or such orders as he may receive from time to time from the proper authorities.

III. The Chief Engineer will promptly reconnoitre the city and suburbs, and indicate the sites needed for the permanent defence of the place, together with any houses, or other buildings that stand in his way, that may be set apart for destruction.
